STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In order to raise resources for providing relief to drought affected farmers and persons in rural areas, the Government decided to levy a surcharge of five per cent. on certain taxpayers. Since Parliament was not in session and it was necessary to take immediate action to raise the additional resources, an Ordinance called the Finance (Amendment) Ordinance, 1987 was promulgated by the President on the 19th September, 1987.

2. By this Ordinance, Part III of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1987 has been amended to provide that in the case of every person, having a total income exceeding fifty thousand rupees, who is liable to pay advance tax or whose income is chargeable to tax under the head "Salaries", the amount of income-tax computed in accordance with the provisions of Part III of the First Schedule, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated at the rate of five per cent. of such income-tax. The Ordinance also provided that in respect of instalments of advance tax which were paid or payable on the 15th day of June, 1987 and the 15th day of September, 1987, the surcharge for purposes of the Union was to be paid on or before the 30th day of September, 1987.

3. The Bill primarily seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance. In addition, the Bill proposes for the sake of uniformity to carry out following further amendments in the Finance Act, 1987, namely:—

(i) considering the facts that the income of non-residents accruing in India is chargeable to tax at different rates, the smallness of revenue involved and the operation of Tax Treaties with other countries, it has been decided not to levy the surcharge on income of non-residents and foreign companies;

(ii) by amending also Part II of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1987 and section 2 of that Act, it is proposed to provide that surcharge shall be payable on the amount of tax deducted at source from payments like dividends, lotteries, etc., made after the proposed legislation is passed;

(iii) by amending section 2 of the Finance Act, it is proposed to secure that surcharge shall be payable on the amount of income-tax on profits and gains of life insurance business under section 115B.

CHAPTER IV

AMENDMENTS TO THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE REVENUES APPELLATE TRIBUNAL ACT, 1986

62 of 1986. 16. In section 14 of the Customs and Excise Revenues Appellate Tribunal Act, 1986, in sub-section (1),—

Amendment of section 14.

(i) after clause (b), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(bb) a decision or order passed by the Board or the Collector of Central Excise under section 35EA of the Central Excises Act;” and

(ii) after clause (d), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(e) a decision or order passed by the Board or the Collector of Customs under section 129DA of the Customs Act.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Customs Act, 1962 and the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 provide for the levy and collection of duties of customs and excise, respectively. The Customs and Excise Revenues Appellate Tribunal is being set up for adjudication of disputes with respect to the determination of the rates of duties of customs and central excise on goods and to the valuation of goods for the purposes of assessment of such duties. It is proposed to make certain amendments in these Acts to streamline the procedures, to safeguard revenue interest, to mitigate hardships of the assessee in assessment matters, and to include the provisions relating to the power to grant exemption from duty of excise in the Central Excises and Salt Act itself which presently are available in the Central Excise Rules.

2. The Bill, accordingly, provides mainly for the following amendments—

(i) to specify Principal Collectors as a separate class of officers and empowering the Central Government to delegate to them certain powers presently exercised by the Central Board of Excise and Customs;

(ii) to restore powers of the Board and the Collectors to revise assessment orders passed by the subordinate officers and making such orders appealable to the said Customs and Excise Revenues Appellate Tribunal;

(iii) to empower the Central Government to grant refund of duties in cases where an assessee had paid duties as an exception to the generally prevalent practice if the Central Government issues notification under section 28A of the Customs Act or, as the case may be, under section 11C of the Central Excises and Salt Act and the assessee had not passed on the duty incidence to others and the claim is made within six months of issue of the said notification. Such notifications, when issued, will be laid before each House of Parliament;

(iv) to accept micro films, facsimile copies and statement contained in a document produced by a computer as a document and as evidence for the purposes of the said Acts. This will, however, be subject to certain conditions and safeguards;

(v) to include in the Central Excises and Salt Act itself provisions of rule 8 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 which authorises the Central Government to grant exemption from duties of excise on any excisable goods or payment thereof since these are important substantive provisions and should more appropriately find place in the Act itself. Notification granting exemption from duties of excise, whenever issued under the new provisions, will be laid before each House of Parliament.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives. The Notes on clauses explain the provisions of the Bill.

NEW DELHI;

NARAYAN DATT TIWARI.

The 25th November, 1987.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 313/7/87-CX-10, dated the 26th November, 1987 from Shri Narayan Datt Tiwari, Minister of Finance to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the Bill further to amend the Customs Act, 1962, the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 and the Customs and Excise Revenues Appellate Tribunal Act, 1986, recommends under clause (1) of article 117 and clause (1) of article 274 and also under clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution, the introduction and consideration of the above Bill, by Lok Sabha.

Notes on Clauses

Clause 2.—This clause specifies the Principal Collectors of Customs as a separate class of officers of Customs.

Clause 3.—This clause seeks to make provision to give refund of duty of customs paid as an exception to the generally prevalent practice, subject to certain conditions.

Clause 4.—This clause seeks to exclude disputes with respect to the determination of the rates of duties of customs and the valuation of goods for the purposes of assessment of such duty, from the purview of section 129D.

Clause 5.—This clause inserts a new section to empower the Board and the Collectors of Customs to revise decisions or orders passed by subordinate officers with respect to the determination of the rate of duty of customs and the valuation of goods, if found incorrect, illegal or improper.

Clause 6.—This clause provides for acceptance of micro films, facsimile copies and computer print outs as documents and as evidence, in customs proceedings, subject to certain conditions and safeguards.

Clause 7.—This clause provides that certain functions of the Board may be delegated by the Central Government to the Principal Collectors of Customs.

Clause 8.—This clause provides that notifications issued under section 28A of the Customs Act shall be placed before each House of Parliament.

Clause 9.—This clause seeks to insert a new section in the Central Excises Act to incorporate the existing provisions relating to exemption contained in rule 8 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 and specifies a new condition that the exemption may be granted only if the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest and that the Board's power to grant exemption from payment of duty will vest with the Central Government.

Clause 10.—This clause seeks to make provision to give refund of duty of excise paid as an exception to the generally prevalent practice, subject to certain conditions.

Clause 11.—This clause seeks to exclude disputes with respect to the determination of the rates of duties of excise and the valuation of goods for the purposes of assessment of such duty, from the purview of section 35E.

Clause 12.—This clause inserts a new section to empower the Board and the Collectors of Excise to revise decisions or orders passed by subordinate officers with respect to the determination of the rate of duty of excise and the valuation of goods, if found incorrect, illegal or improper.

Clause 13.—This clause provides for acceptance of micro films, facsimile copies and computer print outs as documents and as evidence, in central excise proceedings, subject to certain conditions and safeguards.

Clause 14.—This clause provides that certain functions of the Board may be delegated by the Central Government to the Principal Collectors of Central Excise.

Clause 15.—This clause provides that notifications issued under the new sub-section (1) of section 5A and section 11C of the Central Excises Act shall be placed before each House of Parliament.

Clause 16.—It confers jurisdiction on the Customs and Excise Revenues Appellate Tribunal to hear appeals against orders in revision made by the Board and the Collectors of Customs and Collectors of Central Excise.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to specify the Principal Collectors of Customs as a separate class of officers of customs. This provision, however, does not envisage providing for any new posts, since the Principal Collectors are already in position under the existing administrative arrangements. But they are not appointed under the law as a class of officers separate from the Collectors. The proposal is merely to appoint them under the law so as to enable the Central Government to delegate them powers under the law for certain purposes. In view thereof, provisions of the Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would not involve any additional expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India except the expenditure already being incurred on this account.

2. The provisions of the Bill will not require any other expenditure whether recurring or non-recurring.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 9 of the Bill inserts a new section 5A in the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944. This new section reproduces the provisions of existing rule 8 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, to confer power on the Central Government to issue notifications and make orders relating to exemption in the public interest of goods of any specified description from payment of duty of excise. Since this is an important substantive power, it should more appropriately find a place in the Act itself. The notifications issued by virtue of this power shall be placed before each House of Parliament as in the case of rules made under an Act.
